Becoming One

The Story Of My Calling

Grace: Opening Our Hearts

Activity:

Inflamed with God:
the story of my own calling

You can have this conversation with any sister, close or far away. If it's possible for you, choose a sister you do not know well already (for example, from the other branch, or from another culture).

Schedule an hour or a little more for face-to-face time, or an online or phone call.

To prepare for the conversation, simply have a few key moments ready to share, and also your reflections on how God works with you, touches you, and reaches you.

STAGE ONE: listen without interruption to each other (15-20 minutes talking each)

STAGE TWO: reflect together on what feels important (10 minutes)

STAGE THREE: consider what your individual experiences offer to the whole

Ponder the fruits of the conversation in your heart over this month.

Mary Ward reminds us:

“Cherish God’s vocation in you.
Let it be constant, efficacious and loving.”

Prayer:

“Were not our hearts burning within us while he was talking to us on the road?” (Luke 24 v 32)

We thank you for calling us into your family,
and into this life of particular vocation.

We pray for the courage to be fully seen, and the grace to open our hearts to each other.
